

IN BRIEF

Matthew Adler to lead growing services division

MIAMI - Adler Group is expanding Adler Realty Services, the division of the company that handles property management and leasing, and has named Matthew L. Adler as president. Adler also serves as executive vice president and chief investment officer of the Adler Group.

Matthew Adler

Adler's new responsibilities include leading business development, leasing and management activities for the company, growing the company's third-party assignments, and recruiting new sales and leasing agents.