Adler Realty expands Naples presence, Clark in charge of office

WAdler Realty Services has opened an office in Naples to service tenants and landlords of office, warehouse and retail properties.

The firm, part of WAdler Group Inc., has had a Naples presence for years, but it now has a five-person team to focus on the city, according to a company statement. Naples has one of the highest per capita incomes in the nation.

Adler's Central Florida portfolio manager Teresa M. Clark, who is based in Tampa, is responsible for the office at Collier Park of Commerce, 3050 N. Horseshoe Drive, Suite 198.

Broker Dara Goren, formerly of WBoback Commercial Group, Fort Myers, is in charge of leasing in Naples.

Adler Group, based in Miami, has developed or bought 14 million square feet of commercial and residential real estate since it was formed in 1978.
